

Library of Accessible Media For Pennsylvanians

WNA Engineering provided design services for the mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems at the Library of Accessible Media for Pennsylvanians (LAMP). Renovations included replacing the existing boiler system, upgrading the domestic water and sanitary services, and providing heat to the upper floors. First floor modifications included new toilet rooms, recording studio, meeting room, call center, offices, and other support spaces.

Project Area
34,000 Sq. Ft.

Owner
Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Location
Pittsburgh, PA